

Library Snapshot 2023

Learning and teaching

- > 8,756 individual consultations via chat, face to face, phone, videoconferencing, email
- > 1,042 students attended 72 researching and referencing sessions and library tours (face to face and online)
- > 113,553 views of 166 online help guides for students

Faculty-specific sessions and online learning resources available for students from each faculty

'I am new and still learning how to find the articles that I need for my assessments. I really appreciate this library help chat. Thank you.'

Research

- > 2,433,863 downloads of QUT research works via QUT ePrints, from 60 countries
- > 2,192 attendees at 180 research training sessions
- > 479 Higher Degree Research (HDR) students completed the IFN001: Advanced Information Research Skills unit

'All the aspects of the unit were well organised and useful to our research career. As beginners in the PhD journey, this unit helped a lot.'

On campus

- > 2,403,200 campus library visits, an average of 6,584 visits per day
- > 196,050 after hours visits
- > 226,550 physical resources

Total information resources (physical and online)

- > 2,245,228 information resources

'Best environment to do work and it is 24/7.'

Online

- > 1,593,656 eBooks
- > 336,101 online videos
- > 88,602 eJournals
- > 1,867,257 views of the library website pages
- > 3,539,940 logins to online library resources
- > More than 406,000 views of online unit readings
- > The 15 QUT Digital Collections were accessed 344,076 times from people in 198 countries

'This is amazing! Both documents...are exactly what I needed. Thank you so much for your advanced research and detective skills.'